Rules

- The calculation of the hours regarding Bonus and Malus starts from the moment when the consignment is actually ready for collection at the terminal.
- The period of Bonus is subdivided in two phases. The first refers to load units which are collected within 3 hours since they are ready for collection. The second one refers to load units which are collected between the 3 and the 24 hours since they are ready for collection.
In the calculation of the Bonus the opening hours of the terminals are taken into consideration.
For example: opening hours of the terminal: from Monday at 05:00 till Saturday at 11:45 (continuous).
Ready for collection: Saturday at 10:45
The Bonus “0-3 hours” is valid till 07:00 of Monday
The Bonus “3-24 hours” is valid till 04:00 of Tuesday
- The Bonus «night collections» will be given for each vehicle collected during the working days, from 20:00 to 05:30.
- The period of Malus starts on expiry of the Bonus period. There are calculated the number of hours passing between the readiness for collection at the terminal and the actual collection.
Its calculation is based on the real storage time, Sundays and holidays included, and it is not interrupted by the closing of the terminal.
- Calculation of the Malus: if the consignment remains stored at the terminal for more than 24 hours, the Malus amounts, referring to the «ITU» column in question, must be added up (see table “Bonus/Malus tariffs”)

For example: storage of 98 hours of a load unit of 9.12m length

Number of hours	24-48	48-72	72-96	96-120
Malus (EUR)	3	+ 8	+ 15	+ 25	= 51

6. The Rules are valid for all consignments, i.e. empty load units as well as the ones to clear through Customs.

For vehicles containing dangerous goods (including empty not washed tanks) no storage possibility is foreseen, subsisting the obligation of immediate collection. Eventual extended storages will however be subject to the Malus rules.

7. During holiday periods and lay-off of continuous working hours at the terminal of Busto Arsizio-Gallarate, the Bonus at point 3 will be temporarily interrupted, upon notice. As regards the other rules, the night closing time of the terminal will not fall within the calculation of the Bonus/Malus period.
8. All prices are intended VAT excluded.
9. We reserve the right to introduce changes at the prices, upon notice.
